THE

SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

Monday, November 14*th*, 1743. [Numb. 503]

LONDON, Auguſt 4, 1743.

ON the 16th of July General Bodenbrock was beheaded at Stockholm, purſuant to his Sentence. He wrote to the Dyet to be ſhot, but that was refuſed. He died with great Compoſure of Mind, and with high Proteſtations of his Innocence Great Interceſſion was made by his Relations to his Majeſty, to ſoften the Sentence, but the King ſoon put an End to thoſe Applications by declaring that 'twas out of his Power, and that he could not diſpenſe with a Judgment pronounc'd by the States.

The River Cam, that runs from Cambridge to Lynn, at preſent abounds with Water, (occaſioned by the late Rains) which makes Trade flouriſh at thoſe Places which had unhappily been loſt for three or four Years paſt, on account of the dry Seaſons.

Two Placards have been publiſh'd at Copenhagen, by the Chamber of Finances, one for taking off the high Duties on all Sorts of Looking glaſſes imported, and impoſing two per Cent only on unground Glaſſes, and 8 per Cent ad valorem, on thoſe that are ground: And the other for reviving the uſual Duties on foreign Corn imported into Norway, there being great Appearance of a plentiful Crop in that Country.

It has been reſolved in the French King's Council (excluſive of former Augmentations) to add 5 Men per Company to all the Regiments of Foot at preſent in the Service, which will amount to 25,000 Men.

The Fortifications on the Coaſt of France are carried on with as much Diligence as ever they were in the laſt War.

Great Preparations are making at St. James's, for their Royal Highneſſes the Princeſſes Journey to Hanover.

Tueſday laſt ſeveral of the principal Officers of the Ordnance went to Woolwich in a Barge, to expedite the military Stores that are preparing for the Army in Germany.

There are upwards of 1000 Pieces of Iron Cannon already caſt for the Navy, and an Order is iſſued out to examine into the Wants of the whole Navy, that they may be immediately ſerv'd.

We hear that the Earl of Orford is indiſpoſed at Haughton Hall.

Auguſt 6 Letters from Paris ſay, that the Court has diſcovered certain Intelligences kept up in Lorrain by the Auſtrians and their Allies, upon which Occaſion the Miniſtry have taken divers Precautions to prevent any Revolt in that Dutchy.

They write from Petersburgh, that the Hungarian Miniſter there has made freſh Inſtances to the Empreſs, ſince the Concluſion of the Peace with Sweden, to obtain Succours for the Queen of Hungary, and receiv'd a very favourable Anſwer.

By Advices from the Hague we find, that the States General have done more than obliging Ships bound for the Mediterranean, to perform Quarantine, for they have actually forbid all Manner of Trade and Communication with the Iſland of Sicily.

We hear that her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales is again with Child, and that a Perſon of Rank has been ſent to notify the ſame to his Majeſty.

Private Letters from Dunkirk inform us, that the People are exceſſively uneaſy there at being obliged to do Duty in their Turns, as common Soldiers, and the ſame Letters add, that the Duke of Boufflers was expected there to inſpect the Works.

The Duke of Aremberg (who is ſtill indiſpoſed, the Army Surgeon not having been able to extract the Ball out of his Wound) is ſet out for Bruſſels; during his Abſence the Auſtrian Troops will be commanded by Field Marſhal Count de Neuperg.

The Diſtemper which prevail'd amongſt the Engliſh Troops in the allied Army, was a kind of Dyſentery, occaſioned, by their eating half ripe Fruits, eſpecially Grapes, but we are aſſured that ſuch Care had been taken of thoſe that had been already ſick, as that moſt of them had left the Hoſpitals; and all future Miſchiefs of the like Kind had been provided againſt by a rigorous Prohibition of the Sale of Fruit to the Soldiers.

Admiralty Office, Auguſt 9. Lieut. Col. Crockrode, who commanded the Land Forces, which went abroad with Commodore Anſon, and Capt. Mitchel, who commanded one of the Ships of that Squadron, are return'd from Canton in China, having taken their Paſſage for England in an Eaſt Indiaman They left the Commodore in good Health, and give an Account, that in January laſt he had obtained Leave from the Government to be ſupplied with Artificers and Neceſſaries for refitting his Ship, but they think he will ſcarce be able to get round the Cape of Good Hope this Seaſon.

Auguſt 11. 'Tis ſaid that the Phyſicians of Sicily, after diſſecting ſeveral Perſons who died of the Plague, have diſcover'd a Specifick that infallibly cures that Diſtemper.

'Tis ſaid his Majeſty will be at Home by the latter End of October, and that the Parliament will ſit about the Middle of November.

The Triton, Harriſon, with Recruits and ſome Military Stores for Gibraltar, was attack'd in the Gut by Three Spaniſh Privateers, and after a ſmart Engagement ſhe clear'd herſelf with the Loſs of one Man, and nine Men wounded, of whom the chief Officer of the Recruits was one, who was ſhot in the Hand.

The Weſtmoreland, Brown, is contracted for to carry Forces to Jamaica. They are to embark the 30th Inſt.

Yeſterday twenty Tons of Bullets, and a thouſand Muſquets, with a large Quantity of Powder, were ſhipp'd at the Tower for the Army in Germany.

They write from Portſmouth, that Hurſt Caſtle, Caſbot Caſtle, Yarmouth Fort, and Sandown Caſtle, are all putting into a good Poſture of Defence, from whence 'tis concluded we ſhall ſoon have a French War.

Auguſt 13 By the laſt Letters from Flanders we have receiv'd the following Particulars relating to the Works carrying on at Dunkirk.

At the Eaſt End of the Port they are enlarging one of three Batteries rais'd in the Year 1740, which have a Communication together by a wooden Bridge, two of theſe Batteries are of 10 Pieces each, and the other of fifteen; all 24 Pounders. They have rais'd a new Battery, between thoſe three and the Downs, in the Middle of the Strand, which has a Communication with them; this new Battery commands the whole Strand, which is cover'd with Chevaux de Frieze * The Lines or Intrenchments made laſt Year are guarded by Detachments of the Garriſon; but as theſe Lines are about half a League's Diſtance from the Town, and that being once forced, that Side would be left quite defenceleſs; they are making another Line, with a very broad advanced Foſſe or Ditch before it, cloſe by the lower lower Town. This Line begins at the Canal of Bergue, from whence it is carried on to the Canal of Furnes, and thence by the Glacis within 100 Paces of the Cazernes, ending at the Port. Three Thousand Men are employ'd on this Work alone, and they go on so vigorously, that it's reckoned they will finish it by the End of this Month. The whole is to be planted with Cannon.

An Order is come down to the Board of Ordnance, to examine into all the Forts and Castles on the Coast of England, that those that want may be supplied with new Cannon and all other military Stores.

Thursday a curious fine black Marble Stone was laid over the Grave of Sir Charles Wager, in the North Isle of Westminster-Abby, with his Coat of Arms engrav'd on it, and this Inscription only:

Sir CHARLES WAGER.

They write from St. Kitts, that two Privateers have taken and carried in there a French Ship bound for Old Spain, which is said to be so rich a Prize, that each Sailor is offer'd 250 Pistoles for his Share.

Private Letters by the Mail say, that our Army has actually passed the Rhine, or at least that a great Part of it had cross'd that River when the Letters were wrote.

When the Post came away from Hamburgh, the Letters from Sweden were not come in, so that it is impossible for us to say, whether the Count Lewenhaupt be or be not executed; but the Letters from Hamburgh advise, that his Prussian Majesty has march'd 30,000 Men out of Silesia, into Pomerania and Prussia, which had occasion'd much Speculation.

A great Convoy of Artillery, Powder, and other Ammunition, is going from the Electorate of Hanover for the Use of the Army of the Allies.

Yesterday the Highlanders in the Tower were drawn out on the Parade there, and draughted off to the following Places, viz. the Leeward-Islands, to Jamaica, New-England, Georgia, Gibraltar, and Port-Mahon, whither they will be sent by the Ships that sail to those Places.

August 16. The Pembroke Man of War, and the Mermaid, Capt. Phillips, from Leghorn, are order'd to perform Quarantine; all the Silk and Cotton is to be expos'd open to the Air for 14 Days, and the Fruit Casks to be wash'd with Vinegar, as likewise the Ship, to prevent Infection.

Letters by Yesterday's French Mail bring Advice, that the Imperial, a Spanish Register-ship, was arriv'd at Bayonne from La Vera Cruz, having on board Two Millions of Pieces of Eight register'd, besides a large Quantity unregister'd, and other rich Merchandize.

Major General Frampton, who arriv'd on Saturday from the Army in Germany, sets out soon for Minorca, to take upon him the Command of his Regiment there, late General Bisset's.

A great Number of Horses are already bought up for the Use of the Army, and are to be embark'd with all convenient Expedition.

Last Saturday Mr. Clarke, a Shoe-Maker, immediately after his Return from hearing Mr. Whitefield preach at the Foundery near Moorfields, went home to his Lodgings in Nettlen-Court, Aldersgate-street, and there hanged himself.

August 18. It appears by some Letters from Denmark, that the Warlike Preparations made there, were concerted with the King of Great-Britain, and that Four Regiments of Infantry and Two of Cavalry (in British Pay) have Orders to march.

The Emperor, according to Advices from Vienna, is more intimately attach'd to France than ever, since the two Crowns of France and Spain have assured him, by their Ministers, that they will assist him with all their Forces. And the former has gone a good Way towards persuading him of the Sincerity of these Promises, by having lately made him a considerable Remittance.

Tuesday there was a current Report, which met with Credit, that our Army passed the Rhine Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday last, without Opposition. And

That an Account of an Engagement between the Army commanded by Prince Charles, and that under Marshal de Noailles was hourly expected.

And, it has been confidently asserted, that the Twenty Thousand Dutch Troops join'd the allied Army as Tuesday last.

We hear, that his Royal Highness the Duke is now much better, being able to walk with one Crutch.

Bristol, August 20. It is reported, that the Gibraltar Man of War has taken a Spanish Privateer off Oporto.

ITALY.

Leghorn, August 1. Our last Letters from Corsica say, that a definitive Treaty has been sign'd with the Corsicans, by which a general Amnesty and the following indefeasible Privileges were granted.

1. That no Tax shall be levied but by the Consent of the Representatives of the People.
2. That all Posts Ecclesiastical, Civil and Military shall be fill'd with Corsicans only.
3. That they shall have Deputies constantly residing at Genoa.

Prodigious Rejoycings have been made throughout the whole Island upon this Occasion, and, 'tis said, the Regency of Florence, on on Complaint of the Republick, that Baron Theodore was lodg'd privately in that Neighbourhood, gave him Notice to depart immediately.

GERMANY.

Vienna, August 3. The Queen of Hungary was safely deliver'd, in the Afternoon, of a Princess.

Friburg, August 4. This Day Prince Charles arriv'd at Munzingen, opposite to Brisac, with a numerous Army of chosen Troops. The French, under Count Saxe, keep Pace with him, in his Marches on the other Side the Rhine. As that Prince seems resolv'd, at all Hazzards, to pass, and the French appear determined to oppose him, there may, probably, soon be an Action. We have heard Cannonading all this Night, and, this Moment, the Report runs that the Austrians had perfected two Bridges over that River.

CHARLES-TOWN, November 14.

By Vessels from Providence we have Advice, that there are now Four Privateers at that Place, viz. Capt. Lampree in the Fame, and Capt Wimble in the Revenge, both just arrived from Rhode Island, and the Captains Fennell and Pon from this Place: The Two latter had brought in with them a French Ship from the Havanna, Burthen about 200 Tons, with a valuable Cargo on board, and suppos'd to be bound for Old-Spain, there being found conceal'd in Bags of Snuff (on unloading her) upwards of 25,000 Pieces of Eight, besides, as is said, a small Box of Spanish Letters.

The Spy Man of War arrived here last Saturday from Port-Royal, where his Majesty's Ship the Loo, and the Beauford and Charles-Town Galleys are arriv'd
